Have you considered the health issues of owning of a large breed dog?

The Seller DOES NOT guarantee hips or elbows of our saints. The buyer understands that adverse environmental conditions (rapid weight changes, amount of exercise, and diet) for a growing puppy is considered by leading veterinarians to be a major factor in the cause of hip and elbow dysplasia. OFA themselves state that 99.9% of Saint Bernard breed have dysplasia genetics. There is no way to know who will develop dysplasia. The Buyer is knowledgeable concerning the health/genetic risks typical of the Saint Bernard breed and that NO refunds will be given due to this type of genetic issue.

Do you agree to these terms: ____ Yes ____ NO

Do you currently have a qualified vet who will be following up on vaccinations and proper medical care necessary for the health and welfare of the dog?
